

Rotorcraft Directorate ASW-100 presents:

2016 International Rotorcraft Safety Conference

It is very common for crew members to take their helmets, flight suits, and other ALSE for granted. Too often, they have little to no understanding of proper helmet fit or care and of other ALSE meant to protect them in a mishap. This presentation will provide information about selecting and caring for various ALSE, including helmets, flight suits, gloves, boots, and vests.
