

Avidyne IFR - Ask the Expert

Struggling with flight planning, check-ride prep, or had an instrument approach go wrong? Bring your questions to Gary “GPS” Reeves—one of the world’s most experienced GPS/Avionics IFR instructor. With over 20 years of real-world Avidyne expertise, Gary will give you personalized insights to help you fly smarter, fix what went wrong, and master your next IFR flight. Students, pilots, and instructors—this is your rare chance to get direct help from the expert who normally charges $500/hr!

This is a free live class (NOT ONLINE) included with admission to EAA AirVenture. For info on purchasing tickets that support the non-profit EAA, please visit:
