

Human Error, Safety Risk Management, and Flying in Alaska

FAA Safety Team Program Manager and CFI, John Steuernagle (fresh from Alaska) will guide the audience to an understanding of mishap experiences in and outside the aviation field. This program addresses human traits, biases, and environmental conditions that lead to errors. Illustrated with aviation imagery, personal experience, and humor from the 49th state the presenter explores cultures of risk and the basics of risk management. This program was the keynote address in Alaska's 2010 Day of Remembrance & Celebration of Flight.

Directions: Exit 101 Freeway at Los Posas, go south then right on Pleasant Valley Rd, right on Airport Drive left on Durley Avenue.
