

SBAviators - What Would You Do?

This will be a round-table, interactive discussion based around an in-flight scenario involving an IFR cross-country flight with partial power loss and critical decision making.

During this interactive seminar, you can expect:

- Thought-provoking flight scenarios to exercise decision-making
- Open dialogue with fellow pilots about handling various situations
- Valuable perspectives on topics that deepen flying knowledge
- Boosting confidence in routine operations
- Sharpening abilities to manage abnormal circumstances

Be sure to bring your tablets or devices so you can reference charts and materials as we analyze real-world flying examples.
