

FAASTeam presents:

The Pursuit of Aviation Excellence

The pursuit of excellence should be a life-long part of your Aviation journey. It's not a destination, but a process. Peter King will explore this idea and make some concrete suggestions on how you can not just embark upon, but bring focus to - and enjoy - that journey toward excellence as you pursue your aviation goals. Peter King is the Training Program Manager for Epic Aircraft. He holds an ATP and CFI certificates, has been a Platinum CSIP instructor and is the Dean of Advanced Avionics for COPA University.
