Aircraft Maintenance for Aircraft Owners and Builders with Ben Kellogg

For our Sept EAA Chapter 92 meeting, join us for an explanation of the rules governing the kinds of maintenance owners of aircraft are permitted to do on their aircraft, and what sign-offs are needed for maintenance items, annual inspections, and annual (E-AB) condition inspections. The rules differ for standard certificated production aircraft and E-AB aircraft, and the inspection and sign-off requirements for E-AB vary depending on whether you are the builder or a second owner..

If entering from Waterworks Way, continue through parking lot to SECOND building. Follow signs to Community Conference Room in 15500 Sand Canyon building.
