

The Current State of Aviation Safety From an Accident Investigator Perspective

Event Details

With the recent spate of commercial aircraft accidents in the United States and elsewhere, the importance of proper and comprehensive investigations is key to obtaining the relevant facts, identifying hazards, and performing analysis to prevent future accidents and restore the faith of the flying public in our aviation system. Join Jeff Guzzetti, Former NTSB and FAA Air Safety Investigator Instructor at the USC Viterbi for this insightful webinar.

Online Webinar attendance: Please RSVP/register (free) here: <https://lp.constantcontactpages.com/ev/reg/r8v9zfc/lp/b83d49fa-34f0-4bb0-8d15-b28fb1a242df> and the Zoom link will be provided in the confirmation email. The speaker will present it on-line remotely.
