

Los Angeles Airspace Update

With some of the most complex and congested airspace in the country, pilot's awareness of airspace issues in the Southern California area is critically important to stay safe in the air. From practice areas, recommended routes, problem areas and more, we'll cover it all!

Speaker Mike Jesch, Chair of the Southern California Airspace Users Working Group is a CFI and long-time local pilot.

Park in the Western Museum of Flight parking lot and enter through the people gate. Then walk to Pacific Skies at the end of the hangar row. This program will be approximately 1.5 hours.
