

Automation In Flight - Using Your Autopilot

For our Feb EAA Chapter 92 meeting, join us for a seminar on making the best use of modern cockpit automation.

Automation - VNAV and Approach. The new generation of digital autopilots and navigators opens new options for vertical navigation and maneuvering for both visual and instrument approach. This seminar discusses autopilot operation and limitations in this new environment.

Discussion will include:

- Recommended operations;
- Use of Automation/Autopilot
- VNAV
- Approach techniques using modern avionics
