

Teaching Airspace - Power Hour Lesson w/CFI Bootcamp- All Pilots Welcome

The NAS can seem daunting, especially to a new pilot? Teaching from a big chart with all airspace's depicted is definitely not the way!

Join us for this 1 hour presentation, followed by a one hour "open mic" discussion as Mike shows a much simpler, and more effective way to teach airspace so it sticks in your students minds, and yours too?

Open to all pilots. Valuable insights for both instructors and students in training.

Specialized subjects tailored for flight instructors, covering instructional techniques, communications skills, flight planning, safety protocols, and teaching methodologies.

Free Live Events On Pilot Training, with an emphasis on safety.
