

San Diego FAASTeam and EAA 14 presents:

Speaker Change - Review of Sustainable Aviation Symposium 2017

The Topic and the Speaker has Changed Educational Outreach and Networking produces the Safest Designs and promotes the Safetest Aviation products. EAA is a strong advocate for these Safety related design presentations and discussions.

The presentation will be a report on "SA 2017", a 2 day seminar held in San Francisco on Electric Propulsion for aircraft . SA stands for "Sustainable Aviation" and attracts experts from all over the world. It is an offshoot of the Café 500 efficiency contests in Santa Rosa. Ca., spearheaded by Dr. Brien Seeley and supported by EAA chapter 124.

SA Symposium 2017 is bringing together the best minds in Electric, Autonomous, & Solar Flight to discuss the critical technologies and systems for the future of aviation.

"I attend every year and try to keep abreast of new developments . All the material presented can be Googled for additional information." - Reg Finch.
