

Bonanzas to Oshkosh The largest formation flight of civilian aircraft in the world

Bonanzas to Oshkosh began in 1990 when Wayne Collins and a few friends decided that, the only way to ensure camping together at Oshkosh, was to arrive together in formation. In time, this formation arrival has become an annual tradition, attracting Bonanza and Baron pilots nationwide. They train for the event, and look forward to the accomplishment and camaraderie of the experience of a formation arrival.
