

Pilot Age/Experience Factors

Dr. Joy L. Taylor and her colleagues at the Stanford University Aviation Research Lab performed a multi-year longitudinal study on the relationship between aging and pilot performance. Dr. Taylor's presentation will discuss their study and the influences of age and aviation expertise on longitudinal flight simulator performance.

Directions: Seminar will be held in the lobby of the Reid-Hillview Airport Terminal building. From Highway 680, exit onto Capital Expressway. Travel Southeast on Capital Expressway. At Cunningham Ave. turn Right. Reid-Hillview Terminal building is straight ahead then slightly left.
