

Soaring Higher - Transition from CFI to Airline or Corporate Pilot

Many certified flight instructors (CFIs) seek to advance into airline and corporate aviation. "Soaring Higher" is an event designed to equip CFIs with the knowledge and resources to transition from the instructor's seat to the First Officer's chair.

This event brings together experienced airline and corporate pilots, industry experts, and career mentors to provide insights into the hiring process for airlines and corporate flight departments. Learn to navigate career changes, stand out in the industry, and explore the differences in the operations, culture, and expectations between instructing and professional piloting.

- Understand the airline and corporate pilot hiring process
- Build a competitive resume and network effectively
