

General Aviation Accident Survival Briefing & Local FAASTeam Awards

With increased and greater training and properly equipped for survival of forced landings or crashes, the FAA has determined a significant number of GA fatalities could have been avoided. It can happen quickly, finding yourself in a survival situation. Successful outcomes require knowledge, discipline and planning. What training and preparation should all pilots take to increase their survival rate? Some of these factors will be discussed in this presentation. FAASTeam General Aviation Awards, local recognition.
