

Reno National Championship Air Race Accident, P-51D 'Galloping Ghost'

If you are a pilot, mechanic, engineer or just an aircraft enthusiast you will not want to miss this once in a lifetime opportunity to witness the expertise and detail involved in an aircraft accident investigation.

Note; the presentation is free however there is a nominal museum fee, for details visit the museum website at <http://www.aerospaceca.org>.

Directions: From Sacramento, go east on I-80 to Watt AVE, north on Watt to Freedom Park Drive. From Marysville-Yuba City, go south on Hwy. 99 to Elkhorn, east on Elkhorn to Watt Ave, south to Freedom Park Drive. Also visit <http://www.aerospaceca.org> for additional directions. If you fly in, park at the McClellan Jet Center and transportation will be provided to the museum free of charge.

A message from the National FAASTeam Manager

Over 10,150 AMTs earned an AMT Award last year. Will you, this year?

Sign up for the FAA's safety services at www.FAASafety.gov!

Event Details

Sun, Jan 13, 2013 - 1:00 pm

Aerospace Museum of California

3200 Freedom Park Drive

McClellan, CA 95652

Contact: LESLIE AMOS SANDERS

(530) 713-0819

lsanders@syix.com

Select #: WP2547657

Lead Representative LESLIE AMOS SANDERS

The FAA Safety Team (FAASTeam) is committed to providing equal access to this meeting/event for all participants. If you need alternative formats or services because of a disability, please communicate your request as soon as possible with the person in the "Contact Information" area of the meeting/event notice. Note that two weeks is usually required to arrange services.