

Instrument Procedure Symposium - January 26 and 27

These two days are not dedicated to basic aircraft control of “pitch, power, and puke”, but rather a time to explain procedures, explore the origin of procedures, and examine the various techniques to keep you in that airspace and that keep you safe.

Note: This event has a cost. See Additional Seminar Information below for detailed registration information.

Directions: If Driving follow the IFR signs
If flying go to the Terminal
