

Weather, How to analyze and apply

Mr. Terry Lankford, a nationally recognized author of seven books on aviation weather will present a step by step procedure to analyse weather and then apply it to your pilot decision making process.

Directions: Driving: Park either north or south of FBO, walk through man gates, proceed to lobby, then into main hangar. Flying: Park in transit on the north side of the FBO... then walk to lobby, then into main hangar.
