

Do you have a good Weather doctor?

Terry Lankford, a 30-year employee of the FAA Flight Service Station service and the author of at least seven aviation weather books (Amazon) will update the attendees' on weather items, procedures, and resources to be prepared for your increase flight activities as spring approaches.

Terry has been generous with his time as this will be the seventh safety seminar he has given at Benton airport since the Safety Seminars started 128 sessions ago (11 years).

Directions: Driving..... follow Google maps to the location ..... then park along the airport fence... walk to the north entrance of the Quonset Hut..... and then have another great day in aviation !!!

Flying: Taxi and park on the west side of the airport, just south of the sun shade hangars... then walk 300 feet west to the north end of the Quonset Hut.... and have another great day in aviation !!!
