

FAASTeam presents:

When the Unexpected Happens-Emergencies Risk Management and Decision Making

As all pilots know, there is risk in flying. We try to minimize risk by training and good decision making. At this seminar, Capt. Milo Johnson will share his 50 years of flying experience and the emergencies he has encountered and the process of the decision making to mitigate the emergencies. Capt. Milo Johnson's career has spanned years as a Naval Aviator, Airline Captain and Corporate Pilot. He brings a wealth of experience with emergency situations that he will share with those in attendance.

Directions: Flying in: park in transient parking and walk 100 ft. to EAA hangar.

Driving in: Take the Corning exit off I-5 and drive East to Marguerite Ave. (past the railroad tracks). Turn left (north) on Marguerite Ave. to the Corning Airport. If the gate is closed, the code is #1230. Drive in and park near the EAA hangar.
