

The San Francisco Chapter of the International Society of Air Safety Investigators presents

Investigating a Major Aviation Accident

Where: Oakland Aviation Museum, Oakland Airport

When: Friday, October 28th, 2011 from 1300-1500

Cost: $5 (to offset the museum entrance fee)

This round table discussion will feature:

Ron Schleede – NTSB retired – Ron Schleede served the NTSB for more than 28 years as a field investigator, human factors investigator and manager of Major Investigations – 2002 ISASI Jerry Lederer Award Recipient.

John Purvis – Boeing retired – John Purvis had a 41 year career with the Boeing Commercial Airplane Company and served as its Director of Air Safety Investigation for 17 years – 2001 ISASI Jerry Lederer Award Recipient.

Toby Carroll – Director Flight Safety, Continental Airlines – Toby Carroll has led Continental's Flight Safety Department for over 25 years. Toby also serves as President of the US Society of ISASI.

Important Notes:

- Program begins at 1300, but you are free to visit the museum before or after the program.
- Attendance is NOT limited to ISASI members. You are encouraged to bring friends and colleagues.
- A door prize will be given to the person who drives the furthest to attend.
- Refreshments provided.

Please RSVP by email Susan.Rivers@RTIforensics.com or (510) 921 5357

Fee waived for first 10 people to RSVP

Oakland Aviation Museum
8252 Earhart Road - Bldg. L-621
Historic North Field
Oakland Intl. Airport
(510) 638-7100

www.oaklandaviationmuseum.org