

AVIATION SAFETY SEMINAR

... a program to familiarize pilots with the Air Traffic Control system, its functions, responsibilities and benefits...

“Pilot-Controller Forum”

SPEAKERS:

Certified Professional Controllers (CPC) will speak on behalf of Pensacola Air Traffic Control Tower and Pensacola Approach Control

... and a QUESTION & ANSWER session:

...local experts will answer ATC questions.

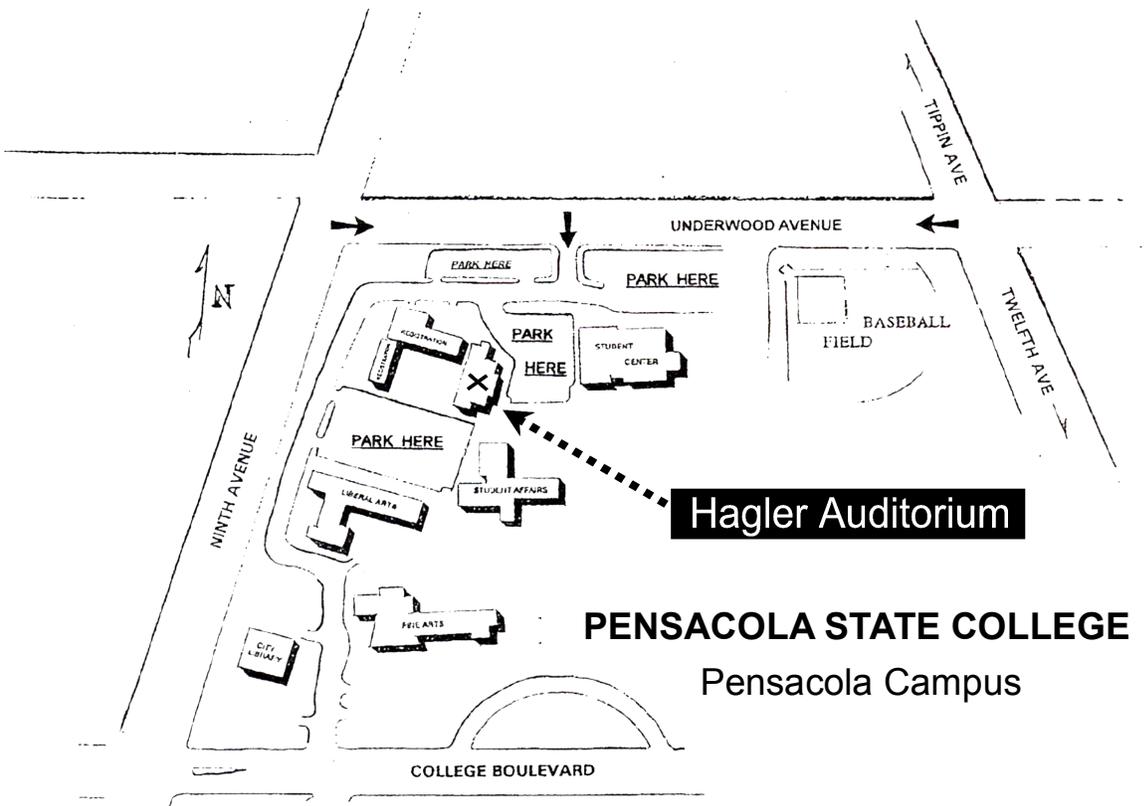

Attendance satisfies the meeting requirement of the FAA WINGS — Pilot Proficiency Program!

Flying In? For ground transportation check at Pensacola Aviation Center front desk by 6:30 PM.

Seminar Sponsored by:
FAA Safety Team (“FAASTeam”)

Special Thanks to:
Pensacola State College
Pensacola Aviation Center
National Air Traffic Controllers Association

THURSDAY, 19 August 2010, 7 - 9 PM
Pensacola State College (formerly “PJC”)
HAGLER AUDITORIUM

Directions to PSC Hagler Auditorium:

From North 9th Ave, turn EAST on to Underwood Ave, then turn SOUTH into the first driveway on your right.

From Tippin Ave or North 12th Ave, turn WEST on to Underwood Ave, then turn SOUTH into the second driveway on your left.

Look for “FAA SAFETY MEETING” yard signs....

And a ROTATING GREEN BEACON!

Park in any marked spot.