

International Organization of Women Pilots

SPRING
FLYING COMPANION SEMINAR

When: Tuesday, March 3, 2009 9:00 am to 4:00 pm

Where: Hotel Captain Cook
Anchorage, Alaska

Course fee: $75.00 includes aircraft simulator exercise, radio exercise, and all supplies

Sponsored by the Alaska Air Carriers Association
Presented by the Ninety-Nines International Organization of Women Pilots
Alaska and Mat-Su Valley Chapters

This seminar is designed for the spouse, friend, or frequent passenger who would like to learn more about flying to make them a more relaxed, helpful passenger, especially in an emergency situation. Men, women, and mature teenagers are welcome to attend.

Participants will receive instruction in the following areas: Basic navigation and navigation instruments, basic flight controls, use of aircraft radios and terminology, emergency procedures and survival. In addition participants will receive hands-on experience with a flight simulator and hand-held radios.

All instructors are licensed local women pilots with both instructional and flying experience. A certificate of completion will be presented at the end of the course. Proceeds from the seminar help fund scholarships for women pilots in Alaska.
